The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Let's Save Backyard Burning

Dr. J. B. Askew is the county's director of health and is a highly respected, capable man in his field.

But as it is with anyone who messes with ecology, a tremendous responsibility drapes around him — like a pall of smoke.

Those frightening fires which destroyed more than 250 structures may be blamed, partially, on him.

It was he who backed strongly the no-burn policy now in effect in the county. This edict was recently bulwarked by the state.

It has been our contention that weed fires, properly operated, do not contribute materially to pollution... that most of the material in the smoke quickly falls to earth. Dr. Askew admitted that the premise was proper — but that people become upset when they see a column of smoke.

So he banned backyard weed and trash burning. About the same time the county invoked a dump use charge. That brought cleanup to a halt in many places. Piles of weeds and grass are now part of the scene where once only a dark spot on the soil would indicate such material had been burned. It is not only the cost of using the dump that is bothersome. The cost of having the stuff trucked there is costly, too. In some families, it requires the hiring of a person to load it on a truck. When the family vehicle is used — and it costs a dollar or more to use a pickup truck or station wagon — there is the unpleasant job of unloading. They have made a totally repulsive chore out of what once was a not-too-unpleasant duty that could be made more palatable with a tin of beer and thinking pleasant thoughts while guarding a small blaze and watching the wisp of smoke.

The pall of smoke which covered the skies of San Diego Saturday, Sunday and Monday, may have been nature's rebellion against those who mess up the ecology. The smoke may have been ten times worse than all of the back-yard burns over a five year period.

Back country residents once control-burned acreage for healthier plants and for a better existence for wild-life. This week, nature, in her cruel way, did for ecology what the health director had undone.

The high cost of handling vegetation combustibles has caused many a homeowner to postpone the clearing and hauling from residential areas. A former commissioner of the Lemon Grove Fire District, Paul Tilton, said this week that some homes would not have burned if they had been cleared of weeds and brush. In other years, he said, the owner would have raked and burned. Now he piles it, deferring the high cost of hauling just as long as he can.

The no-burn edict is no more ridiculous we suppose than the cigarette advertising philosophy where manufacturers may encourage the purchase of cigarettes as long as the package tells you that smoking may be harmful.

Southland Now Imperial S & L

The name of Southland Savings and Loan Association has been changed to Imperial Savings and Loan Association of the South, Harry H. Holthusen, president, has announced.

Holthusen said the name was changed in order to bring about a closer identification between the association and its parent company, Imperial Corporation of America, the nation's third-largest publicly-held savings and loan holding company, which has assets of about $1.4 billion.

He emphasized that there will be no change in association policies or personnel as a result of the same change.

"Through a many-fold expansion, this association has continued to serve the San Diego area both from a business and civic point of view. As Imperial Savings, we intend to increase our involvement in the affairs of our community and to exert every effort to find additional ways to bring our customers more and better services."

Holthusen said that all California savings and loan associations owned by Imperial Corp. of America have changed their names to include the word "Imperial".

The $50 million Santa Rosa-based association becomes Imperial Savings and Loan Association of the North. Presidio Savings, Santa Barbara, acquired by ICA in June of this year, has been renamed Imperial Savings of Santa Barbara. Imperial Savings, El Centro, a charter member of the ICA group of associations, has had that name since 1943.

Investors Savings, Pasadena, and Newport Balboa Savings, Newport Beach, have been consolidated under the name Imperial Savings and Loan Association of Newport-Pasadena.

The local branch is at Broadway and Main streets.

PARADE — Lovely Sandi Sjorgren, Miss Lemon Grove was on hand to lead the Kid's Day Parade down Broadway Saturday. The Parade was sponsored by the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club. More photos, page six.

McLees Quits County Post

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County Counsel Bertram McLees, Jr., slipped out of county service Monday afternoon after briefly informing his staff.

McLees had been with the county since December of 1934 and was named county counsel in October of 1962.

He will be on accrued, terminal vacation until Jan. 1 when his retirement becomes official.

Assistant County Counsel Robert Berrey, will probably be named to be in charge until a new man is appointed to the job. It could, of course, be Berrey.

LG Fire Report

Besides the Lemon Grove Fire Department assisting in the big county fire which began last weekend, burning over 160,000 acres and destroying many structures, it answered two other calls, one of them being local.

On Sept. 23 at 4:53 p.m., firemen went to Cypress and Arcadia, where a car, belonging to Charles Wood of 2654 Citronella, was afire. Cause of the fire was given as the gas line being ignited, and the loss about $150.

On Sept. 25 at 5:54 p.m., firemen assisted the Lakeside Fire Department in a 30 acre brush fire, and were assisted by five other fire districts. No structures were burned in that fire.

The L.G.F.D. had one rescue run during the week. On Sept. 26, at 10:29 p.m., rescuers went to the 7800 block Broadway. There James Cooter, about 65, of 2370 Bonita, Lemon Grove, had been hit by a car. He was given first aid for cuts, bruises and a possible broken leg and was sent to Grossmont Hospital.

Man Severely Hurt By Auto In Crosswalk

James P. Cooter, 65, of 2372 Bonita st., Lemon Grove, is in a critical condition at Grossmont hospital after being hit in a cross-walk in the 7800 block on Broadway in Lemon Grove, Saturday about 10 a.m.

Cooter was struck by a car being driven by Lowell Francis Moody, of San Diego. CHP Officer William D. Pasley said prosecution would be sought for violation of a pedestrian's right of way by Moody.

Cooter, a retired machinist, suffered a laceration of the forehead, leg cuts and a fractured leg. Members of the Lemon Grove Fire Department aided in treatment until an ambulance came.

Man Arrested On Dope Charge

James Howard Smith, 19, was arrested last week for possession of marijuana, possession of dangerous drugs, and being under the influence of dangerous drugs.

Following a radio call late Tuesday night, Sheriff's deputies proceeded to the 1700 block of Dupont st., Lemon Grove, where they observed the suspect walking along the road.

According to reports, Smith was staggering, and was approached. Deputy Norman Crawford identified himself as a law enforcement officer, and Smith began running.

He was caught after running for a few yards, and in the ensuing struggle, dropped a hand rolled cigarette and a piece of foil containing pills.

Area Mopping Up Operations Underway After Fire Damage

Mopping up procedures were underway early this week, after the Laguna fire swept through Dulzura and Jamul, and threatened the homes of residents of La Presa.

At least twenty structures were destroyed by the blaze in Jamul, including three buildings of the Jamul-Las Flores School, and many horses and other livestock were turned loose so they could escape the flames.

One Jamul resident, Mrs. Fred Niman, described the blaze as "unreal." "We were really lucky," she said, "it burned all around us, but our house wasn't reached."

She also noted that ashes in the area were so thick that they couldn't be cleaned up until the electricity was restored Monday afternoon. "You can't sweep them up; you can only move them around," she insisted.

Smoke from the blaze darkened skies over Spring Valley, and motorists were forced to turn on headlights as they traveled through the community.

Early Sunday morning, residents were evacuated from Jamul, and by noon, residents of Casa de Oro started loading their cars with belongings and fueling their vehicles in case the area were to be evacuated.

Traffic to the east on Highway 94 was stopped at the east end of Casa de Oro, at Avocado blvd.

An evacuation center was started in Casa de Oro, where phone service were stopped.

The school is expected to be ready for students by Monday, but Whitley said that it was impossible to tell what the enrollment would be, as many families in the district lost their homes.

Additionally, some classified employees living in the area lost their homes, so the school will probably be short-handed. Students were at home this week, many helping in the clean-up operations.

In La Presa, many residents were evacuated Sunday at 2 p.m., as flames moved over the hills from the south, but the blaze did not reach any homes in the area.

The fire also reached San Miguel Mountain Sunday, and forced two ultra-high frequency stations, channels 39 and 15, off the air. The two stations have transmitters atop the peak.

MIDNIGHT AT NOON — Darkness set in at noon over Spring Valley last Sunday, as thick smoke from the Laguna fire blotted the sun from the skies. Motorists in the area were forced to use headlights as they traveled through the community.

Census Bureau To Question Residents

Questions on consumer buying and home improvement expectations will be asked by representatives of the Bureau of the Census in this area during October, according to Leonard C. Isley, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Los Angeles.

The questions are asked four times yearly as part of a nationwide effort to collect information as a guide to Federal agencies and other groups in developing programs based on consumer spending patterns.

A sample of residents in this area will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car, or major appliance during the next year and if they have made recent purchases of these items. Homeowners will be asked about home improvements and repairs during the last three months and any planned for the future.

In the second quarter of 1970, the survey indicated that consumer plans to buy new houses rose after a two-year decline while the percentage of families expecting income increases within 12 months had declined.

Highway Signs To Tell Drivers Of Campspots

A new sign that will inform travelers of the location of establishments that provide overnight facilities for travel trailers, campers, house cars and similar vehicles will soon become commonplace on California State highways.

According to A. C. Estep, traffic engineer for the California Division of Highways, the signs will read "CAMPERS" and be posted near highway exits in the same manner as those now in use to direct motorists to sites where gas, food and lodging are available. The new signs will also be the same colors—white reflectorized letters on a blue background.

The requirements that must be met before a facility is eligible for directional signing were originated by a statewide committee that included representatives of the California Division of Highways and the trailer park industry.

Services Planned Today For Mrs. Frank Gigliotti

Funeral services are being held today at 2 p.m. at Trinity Presbyterian church in Spring Valley for Mabelle Pizzini Gigliotti, 69, who died Monday at Grossmont following a long illness. She is the wife of Dr. Frank Bruno Gigliotti, long recognized throughout the world for interest in the downtrodden and for his activity in governmental, charitable and religious affairs. The couple live at 3785 Gigliotti dr. in Lemon Grove for 36 years.

She was born in Providence, R.I. where her father was earning his PhD at Brown University. She attended Barnard College in New York and was married just before her graduation in 1921.

She wrote poems most of her life and was nominated as Distinguished Woman of America after one of her poems appeared in a United Nations publication.

California Highway Patrol Officer John Annis told board members of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Thursday that divided thoroughfares can reduce the accident rate dramatically.

Annis, the safety and education officer for the Patrol illustrated the theory by comparing two ends of a single road locally. Broadway, west of Imperial has center dividers. The accident rate there is 3.1 accidents per million miles. East of Imperial on the same thoroughfare there are no islands and the accident rate is more than double at 8.6 accidents per million miles.

The program ties in closely with the chamber's Broadway improvement program. The County Road Department has planned to improve Broadway early next year and center islands are planned, according to Bob Russell, chamber president. Not decided yet are whether there will be control curbs alongside the parking strips and who will maintain the parking.

Planning Department Approves R-3

Rancho San Diego Gets OK On 115 of 6,000 Acres

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Planning Commission scratched the surface of an iceberg Friday by approving zone reclassifications for less than 200 of 6,000 acres of Rancho San Diego.

A group gathered in opposition was left without much to oppose.

The Associated Land Co. had asked for 115 acres of R-3 (apartment) zoning and this added to existing R-3 and R-4 would have allowed one dwelling unit for each 1,000 square feet of land.

Zoning Chief John Cassidy, however, said that the PRD (planned residential development) of the company could be accommodated with mostly

R-2 zoning which allows one dwelling unit for each 3,000 square feet of land.

In addition, the land on the borders of the acreage will be zone R-1 as a protection to the developed subdivisions nearby.

The location is on both sides of Austin road, west of Sweetwater Springs blvd. The land is part of the Fred Hansen holdings.

The associated PRD was postponed until Oct. 2 to allow the staff to give it further study.

Those in opposition still will have the opportunity to speak then or at the time the rezoning is before the county Board of Supervisors.

County officials told County News Assn. they felt this first unit could be approved outside of a master plan for the total acreage because of the already-approved apartment zoning in the area.

Gary McCabe of Associated agreed with Cassidy's suggestions for down-zoning except for two parcels where apartments are planned. The commission accepted Cassidy's recommendation anyway with the understanding the R-2 zone could be changed.

Plans are generally known for the development, but not specifics. The Monte Vista ranch with its 3,600 acres, east of Casa de Oro makes up a large portion of the land holdings.

The developers will apparently attempt to create their own industries on the theory that if anyone wants to attract as many as 100,000 people, employment for those people is vital.

Raleigh Kirkendall, executive vice president, said he could not predict timetables, but said it is doubtful if the first unit of the first PRD has people living in it before next June.

The company, he said, will work with the school districts to attempt to keep overcrowding down.

The county, under its newly-adopted private development plan policy, will insist that a developer show that whatever urban services are needed are actually available.

CASH AWARD — Oscar L. Henton, of 3654 Bonita st., Lemon Grove, was presented $120 last week for superior achievement with the United States Navy Public Works Department.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

How does one say "Are you going?" in Spanish? Please tell how to say "I'm going," and "I'm not going." "Va" is one way to express "going." We say say "Va usted?" for "Are you going?" A single word, "voy" means "I am going." This may be expanded to emphasize the subject "yo" (I) when we say "Yo voy." (I am going).

Negative statements are seen in "No voy," or "Yo no voy." Both phrases mean "I am not going." Also "No va usted," expresses the negative form and means "You are not going."

"Vamos" is the way to express "We are going." The pronoun "nosotros" (we) may be added to give emphasis to the subject. When included in the phrase, it appears as "Nosotros vamos," for "We are going." Another meaning for "Vamos" is "Let's go."

"Va usted a" is a variation of "va." This expression is usually completed by adding a location as seen in "Va usted a el cine?" (Are you going to the movie?). "Vamos a la clase." (We are going to the class.) demonstrates the addition of a location, "la clase," to complete the phrase.

"Va," "vamos" and "voy" are demonstrated in the practice phrases listed below. You may wish to learn how to say them with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone. The voice will say each word and pause for you to say the same word. Then the complete phrases will be pronounced for you.

This Sunday
Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is for more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

COMBO Distributes Cash To Eight Cultural Groups

Checks totalling $23,800 were mailed last week to eight cultural groups sharing funds raised through COMBO (Combined Arts and Education) Council of San Diego County in 1970.

This total — the second disbursement of funds pledged during COMBO's united drive to business and industry last spring — includes $5,000 from the City of Chula Vista and $16,866 from the City of San Diego.

COMBO president Victor H. Krulak praised the city councils of Chula Vista and San Diego for leading the way in the support of performing arts and museums in San Diego county through a single united gift.

COMBO will begin receiving payments on its $100,000 pledge from the County Board of Supervisors in October, Krulak said, and will disburse funds every other month as pledges are received.

COMBO's beneficiaries and the amounts they received last week are: San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association, $8,400; San Diego Opera Guild, $5,600; Old Globe Theatre, $4,480; La Jolla Museum of Art, $3,080; San Diego Ballet Association, $1,400; San Diego Civic Youth Orchestra, $280; Young Audiences, Inc., $280; and San Diego Junior Theatre, $280.

COMBO disbursed $80,000 to its beneficiaries in July. These eight groups also will share proceeds from two COMBO benefit auctions in the Conference Building, Balboa Park: COMBO-Mart, an informal afternoon and evening auction on Thursday, December 3, with admission at $1.50 for adults, and $5.00 for children under 18; and Com-bocopia, a formal black-tie event the night of Saturday, December 5 with admission at $150 per couple.

A $41,750 home in San Clemente Park Estates will be sold to the highest bidder at the climax of COMBO-Mart, December 3.

The deed to the home of 5407 Bothe ave., was presented last week to Christopher D. Sickels, COMBO auction chairman, by Irvin J. Kahn, President of Penasquitos, Inc., the corporation which donated the home.

In ceremonies at 2:30 p.m., Kahn explained that the COMBO house is one of eight models in the new development

West of Regents road and East of Interstate 5 and La Jolla.

If the high bidder at COMBO-Mart elects to have one of the other seven models he will be given the basic $41,750 allowance on a more expensive home, Kahn said.

The house — which has 2,098 square feet of floor space — includes a master bedroom with adjoining bath and dressing room, two other bedrooms, and bath, kitchen, dining room, living room, family room and sundeck.

Special features are a fireplace with gas long lighter, a wet bar, a light dimmer switch in the dining room, self-cleaning oven, and built-in television cable outlets.

Three members of Lemon Grove Boy Scout Troop 376 received a total of eight merit badges at the group's Court of Awards last night.

Held at the Troop's sponsoring institution, St. Phillip's Episcopal Church, 2660 Hardy dr., the ceremony was a prelude to the December Court which will culminate the year's activities.

In addition, 32 Scouts who Hill said that this work will satisfy the October requirement for community service. Their September service work was to paint the fence surrounding the St. Phillip's Church parking lot.

High School Students Earn Cash, Credit For Work Study Program

Area high school students are earning dollars and high school credits at the same time through the help of local partland area employers participating in the district's work experience program.

Although more than 800 are ready involved in the program this year, many more are willing and need to be placed in part-time jobs.

According to Jack Cavanagh, Director of Vocational Education, "Today, more than ever, there are students in high school who need part-time jobs."

"Some need a job to help them through school. Others stay in school just because of the job. Frequently, the job is a difference between school achievement and non-achievement as these students must maintain their academic sub-standards."

More regular part-time jobs are desperately needed now. Employers are needed who can provide a minimum of ten hours work a week and pay a legal state minimum wage of $1.35 per hour.

The District has students available for work in almost any field — construction, office, sales, food service, industrial, and agricultural are just few.

"Any employers who may be interested in placing students in their business may telephone the Grossmont District Office, 465-3131 extension 8, to obtain information about the Work Experience Program. This gives our community employers a chance to get some good help while helping a student," said Cavanagh.

"There are seven work experience specialists in the District at present and they cover all eight high schools, and the special education school. "The Work Experience program is just one of the areas in which the high school district and the community work together for the meaningful and successful educational experiences of area youth," said Cavanagh.

Juniors, Seniors At Helix Have Guidance Center

The Juniors and seniors at Helix High School can add another item to their list of opportunities, because this year Helix has designated one room as a counseling and vocational guidance center especially for them.

A first of its kind at Helix, the guidance center is staffed with a counselor each period of the school day, a full time secretary and another counselor specializing in work experience. The counseling staff is there to answer student questions and to discuss any problems that the students may have.

In addition, the guidance center is stocked with college bulletins and will be used as a center for college conferences.

Vocational materials are also available to students in the guidance center. An added feature at the center is the new reader-printer, a machine that keeps a listing of job openings throughout the area.

The new guidance center is based on the idea of a Student Union Building where the students can provide the furnishings.

CLASSROOM OUT-OF-DOORS — More than 300,000 San Diego County sixth grade girls and boys have learned to love the "Back Country" at Camp Cuyamaca, Camp Marston, and Camp Palomar in past 24 years. The program is jointly financed by County of San Diego, City of San Diego, and cooperating school districts. A specially trained and selected school staff makes week at camp an unusual learning experience, not just recreation.

Rotary Club To Meet Tomorrow At Ox Bow

The weekly luncheon-meeting of the Spring Valley Rotary Club will be Friday at 12:10 p.m. in the Ox Bow Inn, Campo rd. in the Casa de Oro area of Spring Valley.

All Rotarians are welcome, says president Don Tarr. Guest speaker will be Bob Thomas, a candidate for the office of District Attorney for San Diego County.

He will be the first speaker of a series of speakers by the S.V. Rotary Club in a program "Know Your Candidate." Thomas will be speaking on "Law Enforcement."

Plastics Course Planned For S.D. County Residents

A course in Vocational Plastics is being offered at Santana Adult High School this year. This course is offered in cooperation with the Regional Occupational Program and is open to high school students, continuation school students, out-of-school youth, and adults who are residents of San Diego County.

The course is designed to provide the necessary knowledge and skills for work in the plastics field. According to Pat Wheelock, coordinator of Adult Vocational Education, "This course prepares students for employment in such occupations as heat welder, plastics; compression-molding-machine operator; assembler-and-gluer; laminated plastics; plastic lay-up man; fabricator and mold-er."

The course, offered both semester, will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 6:30 to 9:30 and Saturday from 8 to 2:30 p.m. Students may attend the Tuesday and Thursday session or the Saturday session.

"This course was originally slated for Mt. Miguel High School and we want our communities to be aware of the change of class meeting. There is no fee for the course," noted Wheelock.

"We feel the job opportunities in the plastics field are on the upswing and by the time a student has successfully completed the course he will be able to find employment," he added.

For further information on specific details call Pat Wheelock at the Santana Adult School, 9915 Magliolia ave., Santee, 449-0272.

Arens Named Vice Principal At Helix High

Dan Arens has been named the new vice principal of student activity at Helix High School.

Arens succeeds Dr. Robert Pyle, who is assistant principal at Mt. Miguel High School.

Arens has been working for the last six years in the Grossmont High School District. He taught at Monte Vista High School for two years and has spent the past four years at Granite Hills High School counseling students.

Arens will work with the administration and the ASB on such student issues as the dress code, the drug policy, and other activities.

"I hope that this coming year will be a year of cooperation and learning on the part of the administration, the faculty and the student body," Arens said.

Students Learn About Ecology In City-County Camp Program

New as the words "ecology" and "environment" may be to most of the U. S., they have long been taught to sixth graders in San Diego as part of one of the nation's most advanced outdoor learning programs.

This week the first 500 of 18,000 San Diego County boys and girls traveled to three mountain camp-classrooms, Cuyamaca, Marston, and Palomar.

They are not there for camping and fun, although they get that, too. A trained year-round staff of picked educators will guide them by "discovery" methods to appreciate nature.

The camp schedules call for the first of Spring Valley schools, Spring Valley Elementary, to go to camp Oct. 19 and the first of Lemon Grove schools, San Miguel, will go Dec. 7.

Other Spring Valley schools, and dates for camp are:

Avondale, Nov. 9; Bancroft, May 24; Casa de Oro, June 7; Highlands, Nov. 2; Kempton, Nov. 2; La Presa, May 17, and Rancho, May 31.

The Lemon Grove schedule shows Monterey Heights, Feb. 8; Mt. Vernon, Jan. 4; San Altos, Mar. 22; Golden Avenue, Jan. 25, and Vista La Mesa, Mar. 8.

"Discovery" teachers ask more questions than they answer. They guide students to make up their own rules of conduct. They teach them to use their eyes and their imaginations in identifying a hawk, a tree, a rock formation, or a constellation of stars.

Accompanying the students will be their own sixth grade teachers, many of whom attended the camps near the beginning of this 24 year old program. The teachers find the intensive week is tough on them, but they are repaid by closer contacts with, and better understanding of, their students.

Commission Director is Edwin E. Pumala, who has been with the program since 1946 when it was established in its present form.

Each camp emphasizes its own specialties, Pumala says. Camp Cuyamaca stresses its Indian relics and an unusual "monkey bridge." Camp Marston, near North Peak, uses the desert geology and environment near at hand. The Palomar Mountain Camp features astronomy with cooperation of Palomar Observatory.

The former Civilian Conservation Corps barracks at the camps have been replaced, thanks to a $1.74 million bond issue voted in 1968. San Diego City and County share camp operating costs; the school districts employ the staff of 51 teachers.

Plans Approved For Ninth High School Monday

Preliminary plans for the proposed ninth high school were approved Monday night at the governing board meeting of the Grossmont Union High School District.

The plans call for the school to open in the fall of 1972, and a multi-level core structure from which instructional facilities extend. The core structure will house a media center. The board also expelled one student for drug policy violation.

In the 1300s, the bubonic plague wiped out one fourth of Europe's population.

out insect damaged trees, build small dams to control soil erosion. And, as a matter of policy, parents contribute about $20 toward the 4½ day sessions. Children are encouraged to earn this money themselves.

About 94% of eligible sixth graders attend the camps. Some cannot afford it. For these, campships are sponsored by the PTA and many civic groups. Currently, the U. S. International University is cooperating with 9th District PTA to sell special $1 tickets to USIU home football games at Balboa Stadium. Proceeds go to campships. More than 2,000 school districts across the nation have some kind of camping program. San Diego's is considered noteworthy in its methods and in that classrooms are literally moved from the asphalt to the mountains.

Environment is a new concern in most of the U. S. It is the pride of San Diego County, and a major reason for that may be the 300,000 local citizens who have attended these outdoor classrooms over the past 24 years.

GUEST LECTURER — Friendly raccoons help teach ecology, which in San Diego County is a sixth grade subject. The annual camp-learning program features nature study, astronomy, geology and conservation work.

Gunther Pool Sales Classes Water's Fine Planned At Southwestern

Southwestern College Business Department will offer a series of retail store sales classes starting Monday, according to Frederick Lotze, class instructor. The classes are open to students and the public at large, but students must be 18 years of age.

The purpose of the class is to provide inexperienced people with one week of intensive training that will prepare them for part-time employment in retail sales, or related positions. Those successful in completing the class will be given assistance in securing jobs.

Areas to be covered include cash register procedures, saleschecks, exchanges, returns, basic math and selling process. Personal qualities such as proper dress, and working with others will be stressed.

The non-credit class meets daily from 3 to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday for one week. The first session will be held the week of October 5-9. Successful sessions will be held during the 2nd, 3rd and 4th weeks of October.

This is the fourth year the classes have been held. The class is being offered early in the semester, in order that individuals will be prepared for Christmas sales positions. Those interested should contact Mrs. Benhardt in the Placement Office or Mr. Lotze of the Business Department at Southwestern College.

The average lead pencil will write a line at least 35 miles long.

Aztecs Ready For Brigham Young In Tough Clash At S.D. Stadium

What could be San Diego State's first real test of the 1970 season will come about Saturday, as the Aztecs host Brigham Young University at 8 p.m. in San Diego Stadium.

The Aztecs will take a 3-0 record into the fracas and now boast the nation's longest unbeaten string at 25 games. This honor came to State when Penn State saw its 31-game string snapped by Colorado. State also can point to the nation's second longest winning streak at 15 straight. Only Texas has a longer mark, with 22.

State blitzed Cal State Los Angeles 35-0 last Saturday to open defense of its Pacific Coast Athletic Association title. BYU, on the other hand, saw its season record slip to 1-2. The Cougars fell 17-0 to Texas-El Paso as BYU opened its Western Athletic Conference season.

This will be the third meeting of the two teams with the series standing at 1-1. State won the first game 32-7 in 1947 but lost a return match 14-6 in 1948.

"We expect BYU to be one of the toughest teams we'll play this year," remarks head coach Don Coryell. "We think Brigham Young is a very fine, strong team. Quite frankly, we're stunned they've lost their last couple of games."

The Aztecs received a real blow Saturday night when they lost reserve guard Bill Moore. Moore underwent a knee operation Sunday morning and will be lost for the rest of the season. The loss of Moore reduces Baldock's crew of interior linemen to just eight.

State's defense was impressive again as it limited Cal State L.A. to 126 yards total offense. The most dramatic point was the Aztecs holding CSLA to only one pass completion and 5 yards passing — both all-time defensive lows.

Both defensive coaches Claude Gilbert and Ernie Zampese were pleased with their units' performances.

"Overall, the kids did a good job," stated Zampese. "We had a couple of lapses on run support. We'll have to be much sharper against BYU." Gilbert was especially happy with the shutout. "We got that zip again. Anytime you get that zero, you've got to be pleased. We had a few flat moments, but on the whole things went well," summed up Gilbert.

AUDIBLE — Quarterback Brian Sipe, of the Aztecs, calls an audible play in the first half of action against Cal State L.A. The Aztecs now own the nation's longest unbeaten string at 25 games.

Rockets Back on Tube After 3-Year Hiatus

The San Diego Rockets return to television after a three year absence with the announcement that the Rockets and KCST, Channel 39, will combine to relay 11 road games back to San Diego this season.

Channel 39 sports director Bob Chandler will do the play-by-play of the 11 contests which will be televised live and in color from four Western cities.

In making the announcement, Rocket general manager Pete Newell said that the television schedule will include three games from Los Angeles, two from San Francisco, three from Oakland and three from Phoenix. The first game on Channel 39 will be October 25 when the Rockets play the Phoenix Suns.

Besides handling the television games, Chandler will also join Rocket announcer Art Eckman on radio as color man for all 39 home games. Eckman, recently announced as the San Diego club's broadcaster for the 1970-71 season, will be at mikeside for all Rocket games, home and away, over KFMB-radio (760).

Single game tickets for all San Diego Rocket home contests are now on sale.

Fans may purchase tickets to the pre-season doubleheaders, October 8, as well as to the 39 regular season games at the San Diego Sports Arena, according to Rocket ticket manager Phil Quinn.

Outlets include the arena ticket office, Bill Gamble's Men Stores, all Sneaker Inns stores and at the 14 other Central Ticket Agencies throughout both counties.

The October 8 twinbill will feature the San Francisco Warriors against the Phoenix Suns in the 6:30 p.m. opener followed by the Rockets and Los Angeles Lakers in the afterpiece.

The Rockets' regular season home opener is scheduled for Tuesday, October 20, at 8 p.m. when the San Diegans take on the Connie Hawkins-led Suns.

Coach Alex Hannum's squad will be playing two more home games this week, meeting the Cleveland Cavaliers and former Rocket Bobby Smith, October 22, followed by an October 24 contest against the Philadelphia 76ers.

Single game prices are $5, $4 and $3 for reserved seats and $2.50 for general admission.

The public sale of tickets for the 1971 NBA All-Star Game, set for January 12, at the Sports Arena has not been set yet.

The tourney is open to players from anywhere and will offer all regular adult divisions, junior veteran's singles and women's singles and doubles. Entry deadline is today.

Entry blanks, already mailed to a list in the thousands, are available through the co-sponsoring San Diego Recreation Department and San Diego Evening Tribune or tennis centers in the County.

Defending men's and women's singles champions are Bill Bond of La Jolla and Marita Redondo of National City, both expected to be back. John Yeomans of San Diego, 1967-68 titlist, and La Jolla's Mary Struthers, winner in 1968, are also likely entries as are Janet Newberry and Chico Hagey of La Jolla, both former national 16-and-under champions.

Out-of-town entries may include varsity players from UCLA, USC and Pepperdine College and such individuals as Santa Monica's Jerry Van Linge, last year's men's singles runner-up.

Leading the cast of returnees is Kenth Andersson, NAIA 1000-yard indoor champion from Sweden, who has lettered the past two seasons. Last year he placed fifth in the District 3 meet.

Mount Miguel Crushed, 34-0 By Rugged Orange Glen Team

By Walt Ekard

The Orange Glen Patriots intercepted five passes and recovered a fumble to crush the Mount Miguel Matadors 34-0 before a slim crowd at Escondido High School Friday night.

The Patriots scored first on a three-yard plunge midway through the first period and added another tally near the end of the quarter to lead, 13-0. The Matadors could mount no kind of drive against a fine Orange Glen defense and after a fifty yard interception return for a touchdown, Orange Glen led, 20-0.

The first half statistics showed Mt. Miguel with zero yards total offense and -38 yards rushing. Quarterback Kevin Pullen of Miguel was sacked five times for losses totaling fifty-two yards. Throughout the game the Matador offensive line, obviously outclassed, constantly was pummeled by a tremendous rush which resulted in five interceptions.

After a scoreless third period, the Patriots scored on a ten-yard pass play and again on a seven-yarder to make the final score 34-0.

The Matador offense gained only seventy-six yards total offense in the game and only eighteen on the ground. Quarterback Pullen completed only five of eighteen passes for fifty-seven yards and five interceptions. Pullen now has eight interceptions in two games.

Jim Reese, junior cornerback, along with defensive captain Ken Brean played an outstanding game on the defensive side for Miguel.

Line Score:
Mt. Mig. 0 0 0 0 — 0
Org. Glen 13 7 0 14 — 34

Mount Miguel, with two pre-season losses under its belt, will open the league season tomorrow night, as the Green Machine of Helix High invades the Mount Miguel stadium at 8 p.m.

Helix, a 22-6 winner over Hoover last week, has an outstanding defense, with cornerbacks Chip Swanson and Rick Schultz, and could put together a good offense.

Mount Miguel, with the smallest offensive line in the league, boasts a pretty fair aerial attack when quarterback Kevin Pullen has time to throw, and an aggressive defensive secondary.

Osborne Gets Second Main At Speedway

It was a 1-2-3 finish for Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area drivers in last Saturday night's super stock main event, as Jim Osborne, of Brookside, made off with the honors, while Pat McIntyre, of Spring Valley, netted second, and Lemon Grove's Jim Hitt finished third.

For Osborne, the main event win was his second of the year, and it moved him to within striking range of the top ten in point standings.

McIntyre, who has yet to win a main event this year, moved to within 35 points of third place John Dineen in the point standings, and back into fourth place, in front of Hitt.

In the battle for the top spot, Ed Hale watched his points lead diminish to 450 points, as he spun out near the end of the race and could finish no better than tenth.

With only three races left on the year, however, the Lemon Grove pilot has little to worry about.

In limited stock action Saturday night, Richard McDonald, of Spring Valley, won a heat race and finished third in the main event, behind Rick Roelofs and Neil Wyse.

In the super stock semi-main event, Cactus Henyan, of Jamul, took the lead on the first lap and help on for 15 laps to win, after taking the top spot in the first heat race.

Charger-Ram Set-to Set For Local TV

The San Diego Chargers take a sentimental journey to a snakepit Sunday.

Returning for the first time to their birthplace, the Los Angeles Coliseum, the battling Chargers (0-1-1) smack up against the powerhouse Los Angeles Rams (2-0). Kickoff is 1 p.m.

The game will be televised in San Diego by KOGO-10 and broadcast by Stu Nahan and Emil Karas on KDEO and the Charger network. Fathered by Barron Hilton and nursed by Sid Gillman, the Chargers were born in Los Angeles in 1960. They were exciting and successful . . . and ignored. So the next year they moved down the Pacific Coast Highway to find true love in beautiful San Diego.

It began at the Coliseum when Paul Lowe took the opening kickoff in the first game and ran 105 yards. It lived on last Sunday at San Diego Stadium when Lance Alworth caught a 37-yard touchdown pass from John Hadl with 2:02 left to tie the Oakland Raider, 27-27.

Coach Charlie Waller put a new wrinkle on the old tie rack. "They say a tie is like kissing your sister. But I have a beautiful sister."

Mr. Lucille Ball Low In Celebrity Golf Tilt

Gary Morton, the husband of Lucille Ball, earned his own reputation in golf when he won low gross honors for celebrities and finished on the winning five-man team in Pro-Am competition at the Ninth Annual Comedians Golf Classic at nearby Carlton Oaks CC in Santee, recently.

Morton's 78 took the one-day low gross competition. He teamed with Jackie Coogan, Tony Navarro, Bill Folsom and Rudy Durand on the winning fivesome, which compiled 115-117 for a 232 total.

Durand, a Hollywood producer, won low net for celebrities with 79-64. Amateur low gross honors went to Joe Hunt of Phoenix with 72. Dr. L. T. Moore of San Diego had 75-64 for low amateur net laurels.

Finishing second in low gross and low net categories for celebrities were Richard Arlen with 82 and Phil Harris with 86-66.

Second in the Pro-Am team competition was a group of John Barbour, Albert Medved, Jerry Geren, Erwin Major, a former Lemon Grove businessman, and Tracy Thomas with the same 232 score as the winners. The tie was broken by card comparison.

Third was a team of Bill Elliott, Link Howe, Dr. L. T. Moore, Jack Grimes and Dr. A. E. Weidman.

Dick Boeler, a seven-handicapper from Penna., had a hole in one on the 16th, thus winning the $1,000 prize put up by the Classic's chairman, Dick Martin.

The honored foursome was made up of Gene Littler, Martin, Mulligan Award Winner of the Year Jack Carter and Bob Smith, a scratch deaf-mute golfer from San Diego. Littler shot a 73, a stroke above Hunt.

Good Fishing Reported At San Vicente Lake

News of sensational fishing at San Vicente Lake since its recent opening is expected to lure anglers to this fishery located five miles north of Lakeside off Highway 67.

The lake is open for fishing from 6 a.m. to sundown on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Opening day produced 660 bass, 2,881 bluegill, 42 crappie, 52 bullheads and 206 channel catfish for 383 fishermen checked. Joe Rishavy of San Diego hauled in 10 bass with a total weight of 24 pounds. Howard Morrison of Santee and Darly Lawrence of San Diego caught 50 pounds of channel catfish between them,

Reinecke Back From San Jose

Richard Reinecke, a Mount Miguel student, was one of two players from San Diego County to attend a week long soccer training clinic at San Jose State College this summer. Transportation and all expenses connected with the clinic were paid for by the United States Soccer Football Association.

Richard was selected after tryouts, testing ability as a player, consideration of attitude, character and sportsmanship. A standout defensive player last year, he will very likely move to a "link" or combination offensive and defensive positions, this November when Mount Miguel joins other county schools in its first year of San Diego CIF soccer.

Monte Vista Returns To Action After Week's Rest

Monte Vista High School, after a week off from sports activities, will get back into action tomorrow, as the cross country team hosts Granite Hills, as does the football team.

On the gridiron, the Monarchs needed a week end off last week, as the team recovered from a 35-6 shellacking at the hands of the Madison Warhawks.

Tomorrow night, however, the Monarchy is expected to be ready for the Eagles, a team that has shown a good passing game and a fair running attack, but little prowess on defense.

Monte Vista will probably try to keep the ball on the ground, with quick signal-calling by Rick Weathers, and power running by Tony Harper.

The Monte Vista defense, a quick one, should fare well against Eagle aerials thrown by Bobby Thompson.

The Monarch harriers, however, could have a much tougher assignment than the gridders tomorrow, as they take on the Granite Hills version of league cross country runners.

The Monarchs will have an advantage with the meet scheduled for their home course, but the loss of Dave Rapolee and Chris Longley, could spell disaster for Monte Vista.

Longley and Rapolee will be out for the season because of personal reasons.

Coach Larry Godfrey, in his first year at Monte Vista, will be depending on Rick Duenez, Tom Wendt, and Gary Close to keep the Monarchs in the league race.

Frank Zappa To Perform At Peterson Gym Sunday

By Lynn Jones

Frank Zappa will bring the Mothers of Invention, that now includes the two former lead singers with the Turtles, to San Diego State's Peterson Gym for a concert at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Besides Zappa, who made albums such as "Absolutely Free," "Reuben and the Jets," "Burnt Weenie Sandwich," and "Weasels Ripped My Flesh," the group will feature ex-Turtles Mark Volman and Howard Kayland with Ian Underwood, piano and reeds; Aynsley Dunbar, formerly with John Mayall, drums; Jeff Simmons, bass, and George Dukes, organ.

Zappa disbanded his original group some time ago to devote more time to his own composing, the chief result of which was an opera called "200 Motels" performed, in part, this summer by Zappa with the Los Angeles Philharmonic.

The next production at the Balboa Park Puppet Theater will be Winnie-the-Pooh. Puppets Please, the puppeteering group led by Shirley and Tom McManus, will present their marionette version of A. A. Milne's "Winnie-the-Pooh" at 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. next Sunday, October 4, through October 25.

David McManus, 7, will appear in the part of Christopher Robin, the people companion of the forest folk in the production which will tell the story of Winnie's attempt to appease his sweet tooth and Eeyore's sadness when everyone forgets his birthday.

William Saroyan's "The Cave Dwellers," a comedy, will be presented by the Actors Quarter, 480 Elm Street, in the New Palace Hotel in San Diego at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturdays through October 24.

This play will be a Buden Lee Production. Tickets are $2. For more information or for reservations call 234-9325.

An evening of Gospel Song with Mahalia Jackson will be presented Saturday at the Civic Theatre. This will be a benefit for Bayview Community Youth Center to build a playground.

Miss Jackson has had the title "queen of gospel singers" for many years. Her only appearance with a jazz group was with Duke Ellington's Orchestra after the veteran composer and pianist completed "Black, Brown and Beige," a musical history of the Negro in America.

Miss Jackson has produced more than 20 albums for Columbia Records with whom she has had a contract since 1951. Among the most popular are "Christmas with Mahalia," "A Mighty Fortress," "Mahalia Jackson Sings the Best-Loved Hymns of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.," and "Mahalia Jackson in Concert, Easter Sunday, 1967." On the latter Miss Jackson performed live in New York's Philharmonic Hall.

Tickets are $5.50, $5, $4, and $3. They are now on sale at the Civic Theatre Box Office, Metro Ticket Agencies, Highlander Men's Stores, and at the Bayview Baptist Church, 6030 Skiline Dr. The show will start at 8 p.m.

The Ice Follies opened Tuesday, September 29, and will be showing through October 4 at the Sports Arena.

Tickets are available at Bill Gamble's, Sneaker Inns, all Central Ticket Agencies and Arena Ticket Office. For your nearest agency call 224-4176. All seats are reserved.

Prices for tickets are: $2, $3, $4, $5, $5.50.

"That's What It Is To Be Young," a play, will be presented by the San Diego Junior Theatre Repertory Players at the Balboa Park Puppet Theatre on October 3 at 12:30 p.m.

A film, "To Catch a Porpoise," will be presented at the Natural History Museum in Balboa Park on Saturday, October 3-4, at 7 p.m.; on Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

This film is about how porpoises are chased, captured and trained for marine exhibits. For more information call 232-9146.

PacTel Budgets $798 Million

Pacific Telephone estimated this year. Combined, the 1970 and 1971 figures constitute an expenditure of more than $1.5 billion, the largest single amount of money ever spent by Pacific Telephone for new construction in its corporate history.

New central office exchange in San Diego is scheduled at $1.3 million. Cost of mailing a letter in Australia is six cents.

LINEUP — Among the many kids honored at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Kids Day Parade were these youngsters. Over fifty youngsters won prizes in costume categories, and for football throw, football punt, and softball throw.

Humane Society Dog Training Classes Open Honors J. Mills

PASADENA — State Senator James R. Mills (D-San Diego) was recognized by the California Branch of the Humane Society of the United States for his legislative leadership of humane causes during the Society's annual meeting here at the Huntington Sheraton Hotel recently.

Mills, author of SB 179, which requires that injured animals found by police and animal regulation officers be given immediate veterinary care was cited for his "deep interest, keen foresight and awareness of needless suffering of animals" by Professor Hugh J. Hamilton, president of the Society.

SB 179 is considered the only major legislation of humane interest passed during the last session.

Registrations are now being taken for the fall session of obedience training classes at the San Diego County Humane Society starting October 13 and 14. Dogs must be over four months and have all shots. Cost for the entire course is $10, payable at pre-registration.

Lt. Louis Martin, an experienced trainer, will teach an afternoon class to be held every Wednesday for eight weeks starting at 1 p.m., October 14. The classes last for one hour for an eight week period.

Carl Sharratt, long experienced in obedience training will conduct the evening classes, held at 7 p.m., Tuesdays and Wednesdays, starting October 13.

'Join-Scouting Night' At 350 County Schools

An opportunity for boys to do their thing and follow the footsteps of good guys like Lance Alworth and Walter Schirra will be laid down on Wednesday, at School Night To Join Scouting.

The fourth annual event, sponsored by the San Diego County Council of Boy Scouts, is designed to acquaint boys with the goals and activities of Scouting and enroll them in Cub Packs and Boy Scout Troops. Alworth and Schirra as well as many other outstanding individuals were Scouts. Cub Scouting is for boys 8 to 10 and Boy Scouting includes boys 11 to 13.

The School Night To Join Scouting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in 350 elementary and junior high schools throughout the county. Parents and prospective Scouts are invited to participate in group singing and games while learning about the character building and self reliance aspects of the Scouting program.

Dr. M. Ted Dixon, Superintendent of County Schools, is chairman of the project. In the three previous programs, about 5,000 boys have been enrolled annually as a direct result of the activities, he said.

Ellsasser

Ellsasser will commence a nation-wide tour presenting two concerts a month following his appearance here. While he will serve as institutional consultant for Southland's Rodgers Organs division, he will give a limited number of private lessons to advanced students.

One of the three most popular organists in America, Ellsasser made many "best-seller" LP records and his "method book" is a standard of the profession, it is said.

He is the only American to have been awarded a fellowship of the Swiss International Institute of Arts and Letters.

Jim Hansen and Tommy Stark, both theatre and show organists, are owners of Southland Music Center.

Teams Ready Here For United Crusade

With a goal of $7,558, the Lemon Grove United Crusade kicked off this morning on a month long campaign to raise the necessary funds to help support 69 vital human care, health and youth organizations which serve this community.

Lemon Grove chairman John Ritenour, owner of Russell's Plumbing & Paint Co., and his vice-chairman Gary Sweet, manager of the local Pacific Finance office, have put together a strong team of division chairmen for this year's United Crusade.

The important public service division will be headed by Byron Netzel, superintendent of the Lemon Grove Unified School District. In the professional division, James V. Dorman of Dorman & Dorman, Attorneys, will make contact with his fellow attorneys.

at "School Night to Join Scouting" Wednesday, Oct. 7 7 to 9 p.m.

After all, telephone people have long been active in scouting. People like Bill Quirk, Advisory Assembly, Gil Johnson, Public Relations Chairman, Ed Perry and Dan Lloyd, Explorer Advisors, and Paul Greenwood, Chairman of the Leadership and Training Committees to name just a few of our good active scouts. We've seen how scouting broadens and strengthens a boy—as well as being just plain fun. That's why we urge all parents to bring their youngsters to "School Night to Join Scouting"—to be held at most elementary and Jr. High Schools, public and parochial throughout San Diego County.

Kuhn Slaps Goldberg On Dope Posture

James B. Kuhn, candidate for Congress, said the announcement by former Supreme Court Justice Arthur Goldberg that he would lead a fight to legalize marijuana is symbolic of the attitude of the extreme wing of the Democratic party that now controls it.

Kuhn declared: "Too much of this kind of thing is reflected in the Democratic majority in Congress—and that's why President Nixon can't get his anti-crime bills passed. That's why the Drug Control Bill is bottled up by reluctant Democrats who control the committees of Congress."

He said Goldberg, whom he characterized as a "Former Democratic Party Wheelhorse," had stated that he would not recommend marijuana for children, which the GOP candidate said was "Apparently a concession to decency."

The GOP candidate said that Goldberg's campaign for New York Governor serves as a symbol of most of the Democrats' record on law and order — "it has gone to pot."

WHITE CANES — Dr. Robert Knauer, an optometrist who recently began practice in Lemon Grove, is among the first to buy a White Cane from George Tonner, right, chairman of the Lemon Grove Lions White Cane Days project Friday and Saturday. Canes will be on sale throughout the community during the two days. Proceeds from the annual sale of White Canes are used for community vision preservation. The local club supports a vision center at Grossmont hospital. More than $11,000 has been raised for vision projects since the Lions started the project 19 years ago. All Lions clubs in San Diego and Imperial counties are sponsoring similar events.

Recorder Workshop Set At School Of Music

The ninth annual recorder workshop, conducted by one of the world's leading recorder players, will be held tomorrow through Oct. 4 at the University of Southern California Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts.

The special weekend session, open to beginning, intermediate, and advanced players, will be conducted by Dr. Carl Dolmetsch, Haslemere, England, with Joseph Saxby, harpsichordist, his accompanist on world concert tours. The weekend will include sessions to tomorrow night, Saturday morning and afternoon, and Sunday morning.

White Cane Days Planned Tomorrow And Saturday

White Cane Days, an annual affair for Lions Clubs in the area, will get underway tomorrow and Saturday, as members of the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Lions Clubs accept donations for sight projects in the communities.

Mike Beggs, White Cane chairman of the Spring Valley Lions Club, says nearly 800 clubs in the California-Nevada District will invite their neighbors to participate in this worthwhile cause.

All of the money donated by the community on these two days is used for sight projects. Primary expenses met with these funds are eye examinations and glasses, visual therapy or eye training, and aid to the blind.

The purpose of a Lions Club is more than good fellowship and club social life, important though these are. It is to recognize community needs and develop means of meeting them. "Your Lions Club is composed of members of your community. They have a great interest in Spring Valley and wish to see it improve," according to Beggs.

Blood, Sweat And Tears Set At Sports Arena

Blood, Sweat, and Tears, a nine-piece rock band, will appear in concert at the San Diego Sports Arena October 11 at 8 p.m.

The group, which began four years ago, plays mostly rock and jazz, but also has a wide selection of country-western folk and blues, and has been known to play classical music on occasion.

The group has had three million-seller albums in "Spinning Wheel", "You've Made Me So Very Happy", and "And When I Die".

Also appearing on the same bill is John Denver, writer of the folk hit, "Leaving On A Jet Plane."

Play To Open At Old Globe Tuesday Night

"The Night Thoreau Spent In Jail" will open October 6 at the Old Globe Theatre as the first production of the thirty-fourth season. Performances will be nightly except Monday through November 1. A Sunday matinee is scheduled on October 25. Producing Director Craig Noel will stage the multi-scene production designed by Peggy Kellner.

In July of 1846, Thoreau was arrested in his hometown of Concord, Massachusetts. He spent a night in jail for refusal to pay a $2 tax as a protest against the Mexican War. The jail sequences provide a framework for other dramatic developments in the free flowing play.

As a New Englander in the first half of the nineteenth century, Henry David Thoreau was decades ahead of his time in attitudes, beliefs and activities. As a naturalist, he deplored the destruction of virgin forests and the contamination of lakes and rivers.

Thoreau's dedication to civil liberties prompted him to aid fugitive slaves from the south, deliberately breaking a federal law he believed unjust. As a teacher, his original methods of instruction prompted his dismissal from the local school. Outspokenly opposed to war, he argued against the inhumanity of the war between the United States and Mexico.

Fire Aid Center Organized Here

The Lemon Grove Fire Station at 7853 Central ave. at School lane has become the local collection center for families burned out during the fire.

Clothing, food, or household items will be stockpiled as long as space permits, at the station, according to Assistant Chief Fred Dixon.

He said many families had suffered total loss and these could use any type of household item.

STATE VICE PRESIDENT — A Lemon Grove resident, Joseph Brand Colton, of 8090 Canton, has been elected to the Council of California Goodwill Industries as the statewide organization's vice president. Colton, a prominent San Diego attorney, left, is shown being greeted by Allen J. Sutherland, president of Goodwill Industries of San Diego County. Colton has been a member of the San Diego board for more than 23 years and serves on the executive committee. He is a recipient of the group's vaunted Goodwill Award. The state council co-ordinates local programs of rehabilitation of the state's 11 Goodwill operations. The council is comprised of executive directors and presidents of the local groups.

Deddeh's Bill Tightens Noose On Dope Peddlers

A bill authored by Assemblyman Wadde Deddeh (D-77th) will now prevent serious narcotic violators from being allowed to post a low bail and then leave the state to avoid prosecution. It was signed by the Governor on September 15.

"This bill will eliminate confusion in jurisdiction on felony bail setting prior to the filing of a complaint and the defendant's appearance in court," Deddeh commented.

The measure requires that before a second magistrate can act to reduce bail he must be made aware of all the circumstances leading to the initial setting of bail in the first place.

Traffic Court Logjam Seen Easing By Boney

Henry Boney, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, has suggested a series of steps to expedite the flow of traffic cases through local courts and bring a greater level of court service to South Bay area residents.

Passage of Assembly Bill 270 by the Legislature will enable the San Diego Municipal Court judges to establish one or more traffic referees. The bill becomes law on Nov. 23.

Municipal Court judges passed a resolution on Sept. 4 to appoint such a traffic referee to handle minor traffic violations coming before Court "A". Presiding Judge George Bryans said the referee could handle about 125 traffic violations cases per session. He said a referee should be on the job by Jan. 1.

Boney said the referee will have the same powers as a municipal court judge in conducting arraignments, taking pleas, granting continuances, setting cases for trial and imposing penalties for traffic offenses.

"In exercising these powers, the traffic referee will relieve municipal court judges of many routine traffic procedures and enable judges to devote their full attention to more serious offenses and to the trial of criminal and civil cases," Boney said.

Boney said a traffic referee's salary will equal 50 percent of a municipal court judge's salary. Judges are paid $30,724 a year.

"Since the county is required to pay the salaries of all court personnel, salary savings will be realized by using traffic referees," Boney said.

Boney said traffic referees also will require less court and office space.

He said traffic referees won't be judges. However, to qualify a candidate must be a member of the State Bar of California or have service for at least five years as a justice court judge in the state within the eight years immediately preceding his appointment as a traffic referee.

"In all, this new law seems to hold the potential to introduce greater efficiency and better utilize the court space now at our disposal," Boney said.

Hickel Cites San Diego's Quality Water Control

A first-of-its-kind award for success in fighting water pollution has been made to the California Regional Water Quality Control Board for the San Diego Region.

Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel and Congressman Bob Wilson presented a Pure Waters Citation Saturday to the Board during a joint press conference at Cabrillo National Monument overlooking San Diego Bay. The Board's work toward elimination of water pollution from San Diego Bay was stressed during the ceremony.

A concurrent Pure Waters Citation was made to the City of San Diego for construction of its metropolitan sewerage system. Operated as a municipal utility, the system has enabled cities, districts and industries to stop discharging into the bay.
